PART 2 PSALM 135:1-21

- Psalm 135...
 - Reminds us of what is true about our God
- Keeps us mindful of what is true about our God
- Comforts us with what is true about our God
- Encourages us with what is true about our God
- Psalm 135 also provides a great example of how to pray

 - Prayer is a _____ between you and the Creator of the universe, a time of intimacy between you and your Savior that affords the opportunity to verbalize your praise, your thoughts, your fears, your joys, your sadnesses, and your needs and invite the most powerful Person in the universe to take action in your life
 - God _____ us to pray, actively _____ to our prayers when we are in right relationship with Him, and _____ according to His sovereign will – and because He loves us, He is for us and always answers according to what is best for us

KOST CHURCH

EXISTS TO GLORIFY GOD BY REACHING OTHERS, SO ALL CAN GROW TO MATURITY IN FAITH AND BEAR FRUIT IN CHRIST'S LOVE

BECAUSE SCRIPTURE TEACHES US TO LOVE GOD, LOVE OTHERS, AND MAKE DISCIPLES

And according to the New Testament letters of both Romans and Galatians, another of the supernatural heart changes the Spirit creates in all Christians is to cause them to cry, “Abba! Father!” (Rom. 8:15; Gal. 4:6). Thus when someone is born again, the Holy Spirit gives that person new Fatherward desires, a new heavenward orientation whereby we cry, “Abba, Father!” In other words, all those indwelled by the Holy Spirit really want to pray. The Holy Spirit causes all the children of God to believe that God is their Father and fills them with an undying desire to talk to him. [So] why would people become bored when talking with God, especially when talking about that which is most important to them? Is it because we don’t love God? Is it because, deep down, we really care nothing for the people or matters we pray about? No. Rather, if this mind-wandering boredom describes your experience in prayer, I would argue that if you are indwelled by the Holy Spirit—if you are born again—then the problem is not you; it is your method.
Donald Whitney

- Prayers without variety eventually become _____
- Our prayers most often focus on these things: family \ \ future \ \ finances \ \ work \ \ Christian concern \ \ current crisis
- When you pray, pray through a passage of scripture, particularly a _____

What you are doing is taking words that originated in the heart and mind of God and circulating them through your heart and mind back to God. By this means His words become the wings of your prayers. Donald Whitney

- Psalm 135’s outline is my outline for my prayer
